Why Ocenture's Identity Theft Protection

A Real Problem, a Real Solution

Once every four seconds, someone becomes a victim of identity theft. The most recent data from the Identity Theft Resource Center (ITRC), which conducts extensive research and reporting on these types of crimes, estimates that out-of-pocket expenses related to identity theft have risen to more than $4,800 per incident, plus $16,000 in lost wages. A single stolen identity can be used repeatedly to:

- » Open new credit accounts
- » Hijack existing benefit and healthcare accounts
- » Empty bank accounts
- » Apply for jobs and tax benefits
